TESTIMONIALS

"Chelsea is what the Millennial entrepreneur values most: authentic, relatable and inspiring. We had the pleasure of having her speak at our UnConference during Millennial Week DC 2016. Chelsea kept the audience engaged, entertained and excited, which was reflected in the overwhelmingly positive feedback we received."

- Natalie Moss Gooden, Executive Director MillennialWeek

Chelsea's energy, knowledge, and enthusiasm for her work is contagious! I hired Chelsea to be one of our keynote speaker's for the Women Empower Expo which took place in Fort Lauderdale in October 2017 and was so grateful to have her presence grace the WEX stage. She inspired, empowered, and equipped our audience of female entrepreneurs and change leaders. We've been hearing nothing but incredible feedback from her keynote and I HIGHLY recommend Chelsea as a speaker. She is a leading force in the digital marketing world and not only can back up her strategies with proven tactics and experience but also knows how to CONNECT and RELATE to the audience providing so much value for all in attendance. I can't wait to see everything this female powerhouse accomplishes!

-Alexa Carlin CEO/ Founder at Women Empower Expo

"My customers are event professionals, one of the hardest groups of people to impress. Providing an amazing program for 200 of your customers who have seen just about everything is a daunting task. If it doesn't go well, the ramifications are immense. Choosing the right speaker, of course, is the critical piece. Chelsea delivered, plain and simple. Easy to work with, professional, prepared, relevant and her positive energy is contagious. If you're looking for a big win and a sure thing, look no further!"

- Jordan D. Clark, Vice President of Sales Caesars Entertainment
