Testimonials

Chelsea is what the Millennial entrepreneur values most: authentic, relatable and inspiring. We had the pleasure of having her speak at our UnConference during Millennial Week DC 2016. Chelsea kept the audience engaged, entertained and excited, which was reflected in the overwhelmingly positive feedback we received.

NATALIE MOSS GOODEN
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MILLENNIAL WEEK

You are a force. Brilliant. Talented. Driven. Yet so approachable and friendly. Rare combination. You were awesome, absolutely awesome, on stage!

BRANDON FAUST

My customers are event professionals, one of the hardest groups of people to impress. Providing an amazing program for 200 of your customers who have seen just about everything is a daunting task. If it doesn't go well, the ramifications are immense. Choosing the right speaker, of course, is the critical piece. Chelsea delivered, plain and simple. Easy to work with, professional, prepared, relevant and her positive energy is contagious. If you're looking for a big win and a sure thing, look no further!

Awesome training! The flow of content kept my attention, and the handouts and breakout session gave me the opportunity to confirm I was on task. The content was able to reach a variety of different learning styles, which is important in today's society. Thank you for sharing such as interactive, exciting, and informative training session. I can't wait to start additional trainings with Chelsea.

AFIYA TYLER
PROFESSOR BENEDICT COLLEGE

You really gave the most info packed into your 40 mins! It was also nice to see a female up on stage with a testosterone-filled room and line up. We need more strong women to show the next generation how it's done!

VEGAS LOLITA

Awesome job! Your message definitely needs to be heard by this next generation. I can't wait to re-watch your speech on livestream and help spread your message.
